Promoting Emotional Health & Well-being

Raising Children with Confidence

This 7 week course aims to give parents and carers the chance to explore emotional well-being and how we can best promote it in ourselves and our children. Drawing on the latest findings and research it helps explain why what you do makes a difference.

If you are interested then please get in touch and we'll let you know when the next course is running. We also provide a crèche.

Please contact Michelle on 0131 621 2621
for more information

Myra Robertson Baby Book of the Year

Gallery of our Favourite Photos

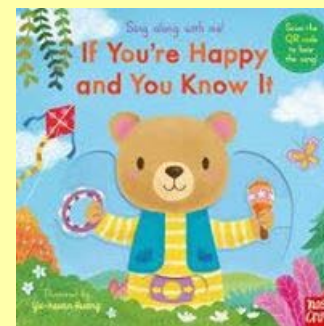

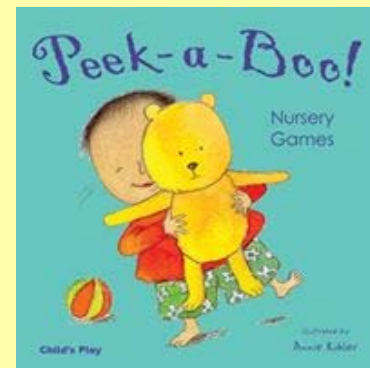

Our Parent Panel has chosen the books to go onto this year's Myra Robertson Book of the Year Shortlist. We will ask parents/carers to vote for their favourite titles in both our categories and the books with the most votes will go into the One Year Bag that will be gifted to all one year olds in the area.

Important notice about Tuesday Baby & Toddler Rhymetimes over the Festive Period

There will be no Baby and Toddler Rhymetimes on:

Tuesday 27nd December 2016

Tuesday 3rd January 2017

Look forward to seeing you on Tuesday 10th January 2017 and wishing you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year from everyone at Craigmillar Books for Babies!

Kezia Dugdale MSP presented our lovely volunteer Linda with a certificate to celebrate 11 years with Books for Babies! We will miss her very much and wish her well for the future!

We said goodbye and thank you to our wonderful volunteer Dorota who has now moved on after six years with Books for Babies. We will miss her very much and wish her well for the future!

Lots of Halloween fun at our Saturday Storytime!
